DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 46-59, drawn to router attachment.

Group II, claim(s) 60, drawn to router apparatus and router control combination.

Group III, claim(s) 61 drawn to a router apparatus and router control wherein the attachment includes a pate and insert

Group IV, claim(s) 62, drawn to method of making a sealing ring.

Group V, claim(s) 63, drawn to router attachment in combination with a sealing ring.

Group VI, claim(s) 64, drawn to device for controlling incremental steps including tube.

Group VII, claim(s) 65, 67 & 69 drawn to router attachment and device for controlling incremental steps.

Group VIII, claim(s) 66, drawn to depth control apparatus for a router.

Group XI, claim(s) 68, drawn to device for controlling in incremental steps the depth of cut by a router blade

Examiner notes that claims 60 and 61 are hybrid claims

The inventions listed as Groups I-XI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The invention of Group I is drawn to a router attachment subcombination, having use with multiple routers, i.e., both plunge and fixed routers. The invention of Group II and II are each drawn to a router combination having a router apparatus and router control, however the invention of Group III includes specifics as it relates the router control, therefore the inventions of Groups II and III are separable as they do not define/illustrate a single inventive concept. Group IV as noted above is drawn to a method of constructing a sealing ring. Group V is a combination claim including a sealing ring and a router attachment. Although the invention of Group IV is drawn to a method of constructing/making sealing ring, that method is not germane to the patentability of the invention of any of Groups I-III or V-XI and thus does not disclose a single inventive concept. Group VII is drawn to a combination of router attachments and controlling devices and does not teach a single inventive concept. Accordingly restriction is required.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
